

BMES General Meeting

12/2/09

Announcements:

- Still a spot available for Habitat for Humanity in Miami!! E-mail Tasha, at benkovich@wisc.edu
- Low row ALPS course for Habitat attendees 5:30-7pm at ECB
- Please get driver's forms and $55 to Tasha by Friday Dec. 4th
- RFP this Friday from 4:45-8:30pm
- Science O this Thursday, 2:45-4:00pm, email Kara Barnhart at kbarnhart@wisc.edu
- Sign with JSM to earn BMES money! Email Val at maharaj@wisc.edu
- Discounts with Princeton Review...BMES officers get 25% off all classes, BMES gets a $50 referral
- If you have taken a Kaplan class, you can take a Princeton class for free!
- Distinguished members: Alice Tang, Andrew Dias, Sarah Reichert
- BMES Elections:
- Communications Chair: Sarah Reichert
- Freshmen Representative: Caleb Durante
- Industry/Research Chair: Derek Klavas
-

Professor Dayle Thelen, Phd.

Email: thelen@engr.wisc.edu

- Topic: New Frontiers in Biomechanics Research and Education
- Other areas of interest within Biomechanics
- Molecular and Cellular Mechanics---like at interaction between actin and myosin, RBS mechanics
- Tissue Mechanics
- Knee Injury and Osteoarthritis: OA may be due to long-term changes in dynamic joint loading