

Biomedical Engineering Society

UW-MADISON

Kickoff Meeting
September 5, 2012

- What is UW BMES?
 - UW-Madison's student chapter of the Biomedical Engineering Society
 - For students of any major interested in applying in science and engineering to medicine.
 - Opportunities for development in academic, personal, professional, and social aspects
 - BMES provides resources such as: volunteering opportunities, research, medical school, internships & co-ops, and professional development
- Events Slideshow of BMES
 - BMES National Conference—UW-Madison won the Commendable Achievement Award during fall 2010.
 - Science Olympiad at Edgewood Middle School
 - Volunteering at the River Food Pantry
 - Ice Skating at the Shell
 - BMESsenhaus
 - Habitat for Humanity
- Officer Team Introductions
- Chubby Bunny and Tallest Tower Ice Breaker
- This Year's Initiatives
 - Plan events around members' availability
 - Tailor events to members' interests
 - Promote industry/research/med school-related events more
 - Kick off Mentorship program
 - Keep high attendance
- BMES Membership
 - Fill out membership form
 - Pay $35 ($30 of this will go to national org)
 - Benefits: BMES Resume Booklet, Online Job Board, Distinguished Membership, Discounts on rent through JSM, Discounts on prep classes through TPR and Kaplan, Free journal subscriptions, Discounts on random goodies from the national org
- Mentorship Program
 - Pair upper classmen and underclassmen in families
 - Plan family type events and study groups
- Upcoming Events
 - Kickoff Cookout—Friday, Sept 7, 5-8pm; Jorns Volleyball Courts
 - Career Fair Resume Workshop—Monday, Sept 17th, 5:30pm
 - River Food Pantry—Friday, Sept 14, 4:45-8:45

- Comedy Club – Thursday, Sept 20th, 8-10:30 pm
- Resume Booklet – Give resume to Karlie Healy by e-mail in PDF format
- Next Meeting Wednesday Sept 19th, 6-7 pm 1800 E Hall